AGENDA:

18:00 – 18:15  Welcoming
21:00 – 21:30 final discussion

In the context of this training, classic therapeutic approaches based on patient cases are presented as well as the latest digital innovations and synergies between the classical implant prosthetics and the paraprosthetics.

The training of specialist medical staff also represents the most important part of the practice management with the aim of meeting the daily requirements arising from new treatment methods and products.
