Use a dry erase marker to track the total number of ostomy preparations that are performed with each drill. It is recommended that reusable drills are replaced after 15 uses. Single use drills should be disposed of after each procedure.