Guided Implant Therapy for Immediate Implant Placement

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

This world-class "hands-on" Guided Surgery training course with human cadavers designed to allow clinicians to learn through lectures as well as have the ability to practice the techniques in the course objectives. The goal of this program is to introduce clinicians to the guided surgery process and allow them to see the benefits that can be gained by incorporating it into their practice. This course will cover the Comprehensive utilization of Guided Surgery planning software to teach clinicians diagnosis and treatment planning. This course will be accompanied by a "hands-on" instruction both in a simulation lab, then in a cadaver lab, which will allow clinicians to plan and place multiple cases.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

At the completion of the program, participants should be able to:

- Learn the nuances of top-down treatment planning to successfully plan for implant-supported therapy for the full arch
- Have a working knowledge of working with the surgeon/laboratory team to design prefabricated provisional restorations for immediate placement
- Understand the preoperative steps necessary to plan for ideal implant placement using the Guided Surgery System

ROBERT M. HINKLE, DDS
